

Case Study.

Client: Commercial Office Space

Location: Barking

Duration: 3 Months

Commercial Office Space

Working alongside a refurbishment.

Installation of a Daikin VRV system with 13no ducted fan coil units for the newly configured offices, providing heating and cooling to the space via grilles throughout.

Mechanical ventilation heat recovery systems were also installed to suit the requirements of new incoming tenants, bringing fresh air into the office space.

